

POLICY ON COPYRIGHT AND PUBLICATION

The Archives must be acknowledged in any publication or production resulting from using the collection. Specific references to the material and the Archives must be made both on the page where the materials are cited as well as the reference, citation, or bibliographic section of the work.

It is the responsibility of the researcher to observe all copyright laws (Title 17, United States Code). Researchers agree to indemnify the Archives of Charles F. Curry Library and William Jewell College against any and all claims and/or causes of action and related expenses including legal fees arising as a result of researchers' failure to comply with copyright laws.

The Archives requires a copy of any published work using their primary resources.

Permission to use a photograph owned by the Archives is for a one-time use only. All photographs owned by the Archives must be acknowledged in any publication. For example: Name of photographer (if known), Courtesy of the Archives at Charles F. Curry Library, William Jewell College, Liberty, Missouri.

If researchers wish to publish any primary resource owned by the Archives in its entirety, they must submit a letter detailing the resource and the work in which it will be published for approval. The Archive Librarian reserves the right to deny any such request solely based on the archive librarian's discretion.

