

Notice of Privacy Practices

PRIVACY NOTICE REQUIRED UNDER FEDERAL LAW
THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW PERSONAL OR MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

Phillips Resource Network, Inc. recognizes the importance of keeping your health information secure and confidential. Under applicable law, we are providing this notice and will make sure that your personal information is used and disclosed in the manner it describes. We reserve the right to amend this notice and any amendment will be effective for all of the information that we already have about you as well as any information that we may receive or create in the future. Our current notice is posted at www.phillipsresource.com and you may request a copy at anytime.

Under various laws, different requirements apply to types of information that we collect, use and disclose. We use the term "health information" to mean individually identifiable information regarding your health care. We use the term "personal information" to mean both health information and any other non-public identifiable information that we obtain in providing benefits to you, such as your address and Social Security number.

1. STATEMENT OF OUR DUTIES

We are required by law to maintain the privacy of your personal health information and to provide you with this notice of our privacy practices and legal duties. We are required to abide by the terms of this notice. We reserve the right to change the terms of this notice and to make any new provisions effective to all of the personal health information that we maintain about you. If we revise this notice, we will provide you with a revised notice by mail, or electronically. If the notice is provided electronically, you have the right to request a paper copy of the revised notice.

2. STATEMENT OF YOUR RIGHTS

You have a right to know how we may use or disclose your personal health information. This notice informs you of those uses and disclosures. There are certain uses and disclosures of your personal health information that we are permitted or required to make by law without your permission. For all other uses and disclosures, we first must obtain your permission. In addition, you have the following rights:

- The right to request that we place additional restrictions on our uses and disclosures of your personal health information. However, we are not obligated to agree to impose any such additional restrictions.
- The rights to access, inspect and copy the protected information pertaining to you that we maintain in our files about you, and the right to have us correct or amend any information that we create in error. Requests to access or amend your health information should be sent to the contact person and address provided in section 8.
- The right to receive an accounting of the disclosures of your personal health information that we make for purposes other than activities related to your treatment, or our payment functions or other health care operations. All requests for an accounting of disclosures must state a time period that may not include a date earlier than six years prior to the date of the request and may not include dates before April 14, 2003.
- The right to request that you receive communications of personal health information in a confidential manner.

- If you received this notice electronically, you have the right to obtain a paper copy of this notice from us on request.

3. INFORMATION WE MAY COLLECT ABOUT YOU

We may collect the following categories of information about you from the following sources:

- Information that we obtain directly from you, in conversations or on applications or other forms that you fill out.
- Information that we obtain as a result of our transactions with you.
- Information that we obtain from your medical records or from medical professionals.
- Information that we obtain from other entities, such as health care providers or other insurance companies, in order to service your policy or carry out other insurance-related needs.

4. PERMISSIBLE USES AND DISCLOSURES OF PROTECTED INFORMATION

- To Carry Out Treatment Functions. We may use or disclose your health information without your permission for health care providers to provide you with treatment.
- To Carry Out Payment Functions. We may use or disclose your health information without your permission to carry out activities relating to reimbursing you for the provision of health care, obtaining premiums, determining coverage, and providing benefits under the policy of insurance that you are purchasing. Such functions may include reviewing health care services with respect to medical necessity, coverage under the policy, appropriateness of care, or justification of charges.
- To Carry Out Certain Operations Relating To Your Benefit Plan. We may use and disclose your personal information for our operations, including quality improvement activities; responses to member inquiries; appeals and external review programs; general administrative activities; detection and investigation of fraud; auditing; administering programs and payments; or in the facilitation of a sale, transfer or merger of all or a part of Phillips Resource Network.
- To Plan Sponsors pursuant to the restrictions imposed on the plan sponsors in the plan documents.
- In Situations Permitted Or Required By Law. We also may use or disclose your protected health information without your written permission for other purposes permitted or required by law, including the following:
 - As authorized by and to the extent necessary to comply with workers compensation or other no-fault laws.
 - To a health oversight agency for activities including audits or civil, criminal or administrative proceedings.
 - To a public health authority for purposes of public health activities (such as to the Food and Drug Administration to report consumer product defects).
 - To a law enforcement official for law enforcement purposes or in response to a court order or in the course of any judicial or administrative proceeding.
 - To organ procurement organizations, or to other entities for approved research purposes.
 - To a government authority, including a social service or protective services agency, authorized to receive reports of abuse, neglect or domestic violence.

- For Any Purposes To Which You Have Not Objected. In certain limited circumstances, we may use or disclose your protected health information after we have given you an opportunity to object and you have not objected. For example, if you do not object, we may use limited information about you to maintain an office directory, to notify family members or any other person identified by you regarding issues directly related to such person's involvement with your care or payment for that care, or in emergency circumstances.
- For Purposes For Which We Have Obtained Your Written Permission. All other uses or disclosures of your protected health information will be made only with your written permission, and any permission that you give us may be revoked by you at any time.

5. Complaints about Misuse of Health or Personal Information

You may complain either directly to us or to the Secretary of Health and Human Services if you believe that your rights with respect to our protection of your health information have been violated. To file a complaint with us, you may submit your complaint in writing that includes as many details, such as names and dates, as possible. You will not be retaliated against in any way for filing a complaint. Following is the address for filing a complaint:

6. Our Practices Regarding Confidentiality and Security

Phillips Resource Network, Inc. is the sole owner of the information collected on our website and our enrollment and claim forms. We will not sell, share, or rent this information to others in ways different from what is disclosed in this policy. Employees who need to know your health or personal information in order to provide products or services to you are well trained in our privacy policies. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your nonpublic personal information.

7. Our Policy Regarding Dispute Resolution

Any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to our privacy policy, or the breach thereof, shall be settled by arbitration in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association, and judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator(s) may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof.
